The 2026 HERO UCI Cross-country Marathon World Cup has visited Spain, Italy, and Germany and is now heading for its last stop in the Costa Brava's Girona, a beloved cyclist hotspot attracting cycling aficionados from all over the world. The Catalan city will host the La Tramun Sea Otter Europe, the world circuit's sixth and last round, scheduled for Sunday, 20 September 2026.

Part of the prestigious Sea Otter Europe Festival, the event perfectly marries sport, entertainment, and a passion for cycling. Each year, the festival attracts around 68,000 visitors, over 6,000 participants, and more than 500 cycling brands, turning Girona into the beating heart of international cycling.

The race route wends its way over 88 km and 2,400 hm, boasting technical trails which make La Tramun one of the most appreciated European marathons. The tracks embody the spirit of this race, testing not only the athletes' stamina but also their technical and cycling skills. The race is set against the backdrop of the unique Costa Brava landscape, where every moment is blessed by breathtaking views of the Catalan nature.

Girona has been a cycling paradise for years – it offers scenic roads, tracks surrounded by nature, and a well-established cycling culture. All these factors contributed to making this city one of the go-to locations in the world for cycling aficionados. The La Tramun Sea Otter Europe is the ideal stage to celebrate the overall winners of the HERO UCI Cross-country Marathon World Cup.

The programme kicks off on Saturday, 19 September, where a meet and greet with athletes and the HERO UCI Marathon World Cup Race Talk will take place as of 11:15 at the Fontajau Pavilion.

The race proper will start on Sunday, 20 September, at 8:30 at the Les Planes d'Hostoles and take place during the Sea Otter Europe. The first cyclists from the Elite Men category are expected to cross the finish line around 13:00, followed by the Elite Women and Master License around one hour later. The race's official ceremony will start at 14:30, followed by the final UCI Cross-country Marathon World Cup prize-giving ceremony to crown the overall winners of the 2026 edition.

Girona will host the grand finale of an intense and amazing cycling season and crown the champions of the 2026 HERO UCI Cross-country Marathon World Cup.
